

To educate and generate dental graduates and specialists to meet high international standards.
To provide high quality of dental care with modern facilities and technology to the public.
To be the research center for dental innovations and public dental health care services.